This week our ASBK riders are off to Morgan Park in Queensland for Round 5 of the 2022 ASBK Championship. All the best to all of our SA Riders!

Arthur Sissis, Samuel Pezzetta, Cameron Rende, Ty Lynch, Olly, Mitch and Jordy Simpson, Daniel Falzon, and Cooper Rowntree!

Road Race Panel Delegate Report

- Further discussion around rider grading.
 - All riders promoted from D Grade to C Grade at the end of first year racing
 - C Grade to B Grade promotion to be based on riding within -5% of club/state level lap record – i.e sub 1:15's at Mallala/Mac Park. Will be reviewed based on consistency and race craft.
 - A Grade to be reserved for those winning State Championships, competing at National level, combined with rider conduct and presentation as a representative of the sport and state.
- Minimum requirements for State Championship rounds to be discussed and settled on going forwards. This will be set by the Road Race Panel but is expected to be a minimum requirement of two qualifiers and three races.
- Review of State Championship Classes – expectation is moving towards alignment to ASBK Classes. Other classes remaining is subject to continued class entries meeting the minimum requirements to sustain class as a State Championship class.
- Expressions of interest are now open for the 2023 bLU cRU Junior Cup Championships – both the SA Junior Cup and the Oceania Junior Cup – please get in touch if you know someone who'd like to apply!
